<Ask all>

* AJ1. I am going to read you a list of problems and disputes that people commonly experience in everyday life. Please only include problems that you have had yourself – not problems experienced by a business you run or in the course of self-employment or as an employer, and not situations where you represented or helped somebody else with their problem. Please only mention problems once.

In each case, can you tell me whether you have personally experienced such a problem in the past two years, by which I mean a problem that started since <<MONTH YEAR>> or started before then, but continued afterwards?

PHYSICAL VIOLENCE (PHV)

16.1.3(a) Proportion of population subjected to (a) physical violence in the previous 12 months

PHV_LEAD. The following questions explore the types of violence suffered by people in <<country>>. I understand that some of them are sensitive and may even come across as too personal, but it is very important to ask them in order to understand the problems faced by people in the country. Let me assure you once again that your responses will be treated in strictest confidence and no one else will find out that you were asked these questions, nor the answers you have given.

<Ask all>

PHV0. Please only focus on events that happened in << country >>. In the past three years (since YEAR), have you been physically attacked, in a way that hurt or frightened you, either at home or elsewhere? <<READ SLOWLY>> This may include hitting, slapping, pushing, tripping, knocking down; being shot, stabbed or cut; hit by an object; hit by a thrown object; poisoning or other applications of force with the potential to cause bodily injury.

* SEV_LEAD. The following questions further explore the types of violence suffered by people in <<country>>. I understand that some of them are sensitive and may come across as too intimate, but it is very important to ask them in order to understand the problems faced by some people – men and women alike – in the country. I know some of these questions will be uncomfortable. Please be assured that by asking these questions we do not mean to offend anybody, we do it to explore the extent of these problems in our country. There are only a few questions in this section, please help by sharing your experience. Let me assure you once again that your responses will be treated in strictest confidence and no one else will find out that you were asked these questions, nor the answers you have given.

28 Such informal mechanisms are to be added if their role is (usually) officially recognized by authorities. Amend wording and examples to fit national characteristics. To be decided by the national implementing partner.

29 List to be completed by national implementing partner. Police and medical services must remain in first two positions and must be included by default. Among informal competent authorities, please consider mechanisms in public and private institutions for addressing these situations (e.g., offices of internal affairs or internal disciplinary control).

VIOLENCE REPORTING (VR)

16.3.1 Proportion of victims of violence in the previous 12 months who reported their victimization to competent authorities or other officially recognized conflict resolution mechanisms

<<Mandatory items included above as VR1-1A, VR2-2A, VR3-3A, VR4-4A, VR5-5A>>

National revision of items for nonreporting is encouraged (between response items 20 and 76), maybe to add further typical reasons, if applicable.

Additional optional items for contextualization may include, for the last incident of violence of all types:

- the clarification if the victims talked about the incident with anybody else other than competent authorities (such as family, social networks, specialised services – for example specialised NGOs, etc.
- satisfaction with the authorities' response, including if the victim would recommend other victims to report a similar offence to a competent authority
